

A vinyl listening session hosted by Grammy Award-Winner Miguel Zenón and Lewis Music Library Department Head Avery Boddie.

This event will introduce listeners to leading pioneers and musicians of jazz as well as the most influential albums of the genre spanning the past 100 years. Listeners will learn the societal influences and historical contexts which influenced each album. Several key artists covering different time periods will be examined, as will their unique musical styles, creative practices, and lasting contributions to the genre.